The Kaiser's Visit to England—The Prince of Wales will Welcome His Nephew.

The Kaiser's Visit.

LONDON, July 1.—The Prince of Wales had a long interview to-day with the Queen, who summoned him for the purpose of discussing and settling a number of perplexing questions as to court etiquette and precedence, on account of the approaching visit of the Emperor of Germany. The court, militia and society, and nearly all other circles, are more or less stirred up by the Emperor's coming, and thousands will not breathe freely until he has left. German detectives and British detectives are already attending to business, for the fact that there are hot-heads and Emperor-hating Germans and Frenchmen in Great Britain is not lost sight of by the authorities.

The Triple Alliance.

PARIS, July 2.—The Matin, to-day, declares that the new triple alliance treaty suppresses three clauses of the first treaty, as follows: 1. That clause which compelled Italy to send an army corps to the Alpine frontier in the event of a Franco-German war. 2. The clause compelling Austria to station troops on the Russian frontier in the event of a Russo-German war; and, 3, the clause fixing a minimum peace effective force of Italy and Austria. The three powers, however, according to the Matin, mutually guarantee the integrity of their respective territories.

The Crofter Immigration.

LONDON, July 2.—In the House of Commons, to-day, Chancellor Goschen said the government were willing to advance £50,000 to promote immigration from the Scottish highlands to British Columbia.

The Kaiser in Holland.

AMSTERDAM, July 2.—To-day the German Emperor received the German residents of this city, at the palace and then visited the Town hall, and the orphan asylum. Subsequently the Emperor and his suite embarked in boats on the canal, and witnessed the aquatic fete which had been organized in his honor on the Ansel. An enormous crowd lined the river banks.

The Triple Alliance.

LONDON, July 2.—Sir James Ferguson, replying to Mr. Labouchere in the House, said that the Government had no information as to the stipulations of the triple alliance, but had no doubt that Premier Rudini had correctly described in the Italian parliament the exchange of views between England and Italy. As to any measures that would be taken to maintain in case of need the status quo in the Mediterranean, that would be a matter for consideration according to the circumstance of the times. The employment of British forces would depend upon the the estimate of the circumstances entertained by England. The existing understanding was not aimed at any power.

The Irish Land Bill.

LONDON, July 2.—The house of Lords has passed the Irish Land Purchase bill through committee.

Exports From Sheffield.

LONDON, July 2.—The exports from Sheffield for the quarter just ended, show a decrease of £70,000, owing to the McKinley bill.

To Meet the Kaiser.

LONDON, July 2.—The programme has again been altered and the Prince of Wales will meet the Kaiser at Port Victoria. It is reported the Kaiser, while in England, will receive Prince Victor Napoleon.

A Waterspout.

VIENNA, July 1.—A waterspout in the vicinity of Murati, Styria, destroyed several villages and twelve lives.

Swiss Village Burned.

BERNE, July 2.—The village of Navette, in the Hautes Alps, has been totally destroyed by fire.

Donations for the Vatican.

ROME, July 3.—The Vatican has requested the papal nuncios abroad, to invite donations to compensate for the speculative losses of Peter's pence. The Pope has also decreed the extension of the marriage law to all Catholic States, which will specially affect Spain and Portugal, hitherto exempt.

The Jewish Migration.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 3.—Jewish families to the number of two or three hundred weekly are arriving in Palestine in a destitute condition. Typhus and scarlet fevers are raging in Jerusalem.

A Horrible Death.

LONDON, July 3.—The victim of the accident at Mount Vesuvius was Dr. Sieva Jardin, of Rio Janeiro, Brazil, a journalist. He fell 170 feet into the glowing lava of the crater.

AMERICAN NEWS.

A Big Suit for Libel.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The officers of the New York Life Insurance Co. have instructed their counsel, William B. Horrblower, to commence suit at once against the editors, publishers and proprietors of the New York Times for one million dollars damages for libel, and have retained as associates counsel, Messrs. Joseph K. Choate, Frederick R. Pender and Henry Beekman.

Damaged by Storm.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 2.—Dispatches received at Kansas City, this morning, from Blairstown, state that a heavy rain and windstorm swept over that town about midnight, last night, and did very serious damage. Several houses were blown down, and two persons are reported as seriously hurt. Several others were more or less injured. The wires are still down, so that it is impossible to get any definite report of the effect of the storm. The depot, a large frame building, at Landes, on the Kansas City, Osceola & Southern Railway, was blown off its foundation and is seriously damaged. The rain was a terrific one, and the low lands are covered with water. The storm came from the northeast, and was about three-fourths of a mile wide. There was great damage done the crops and fruit.

A Defaulting Bank Official.

NEW YORK, July 2.—A special to the Press from Chicago says, Gideon, the defaulting president of the Keystone bank, in Philadelphia, arrived here yesterday. It is thought that he will be arrested to-night.

Secretary Blaine's Health.

BAR HARBOR, Maine, July 2.—Secretary Blaine was not as well to-day as he was yesterday, although he took his customary ride and had a short walk. He is by no means a well man, and his bad spells last for a day or two, but there is no reason why he should not be well and strong by autumn. Dr. Taylor, his physician, says he has no organic disorder, and is rapidly recovering his usual health.

None But Canadians Need Apply.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., July 2.—Huckler & Sons, of Buffalo, who have the contract for the Canadian canal, have been notified by the Canadian authorities that none but Canadians shall be permitted to be employed on the work. This throws out of employment over a hundred American dredgemen. The cause of this is supposed to be the exclusion of Canadians from the work on the "Soo" canal on the American side.

Defeat for Balmaceda.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The following cable was received this evening by Richard L. Trumbull, agent of the Congressional Government, now in this city: "The troops of the dictator (Balmaceda) fled at the approach of our forces. (Signed), "Secretary of the Congressional Congress." Mr. Trumbull said that Huayaxo, which was the place captured by the Congressionalists, was a seaport town, north of Coquimbo. The despatch showed that Balmaceda could not count upon the support of his soldiers. The cable tends to confirm the reports that the insurgents are moving on Coquimbo, and a battle at that place may now be expected to occur at any time.

Hold Your Brilliants.

CHICAGO, June 30.—Diamonds in the sky are in future to be no higher than the coveted jewelry store article. Wells, one of the Kimberley nabobs, who is stopping at the Grand Pacific, said that he had received information to the effect that orders had been issued to curtail the coming year's output to the extent of $10,000,000. "This means that the price will advance 100 per cent," said the speaker. Mr. Wells has lived in Kimberley for over twenty years. When the first diamonds were found there he was only a mile away, and upon receiving the news he rushed to the spot and assisted in staking out the original claim. "There are about 40,000 people now in Kimberley," he added, "and the diamond mines are the reason of their being there. Were all the mines worked there, there would be no reason for this rise, for the output would be sufficient to glut the world."

SMASHED THE IMAGES.

A Maniac Makes Things Lively with His Blackthorn in a Village Chapel.

He is Finally Captured After Taking to the River to Evade the Police.

DUBLIN, July 2.—While a number of persons were at prayers yesterday in the Catholic church of the village of Birrtone, one of the worshippers, Joseph Fitzgerald, rose from his knees and walked quietly to the altar. Then suddenly, with a yell, he leaped over the altar rails and began belaboring everything he could reach with his heavy stick. A marble image of St. Joseph, which had recently cost the congregation £15, was the first object of Fitzgerald's rage. A blow with the blackthorn ruined the nose of the statue, and further damage followed, until the piece of art was a heap of fragments. The work of destruction went rapidly on, the arm and foot of the image of the Virgin being the next to fly to pieces. The brass candlesticks and the vases on the altar were smashed to a shapeless mass. Then with a loud "whirroo," Fitzgerald rushed at the altar itself, a beautiful construction of variegated marble. All this time the people in the church, mostly women, were too much terrified to interfere, and were only intent on escaping from the reach of the lunatic, as he evidently was. A townsman, named Dunne, however, who chanced to pass, was attracted by the noise in the church, and on going in and learning the cause of the commotion, he at once grappled with the maniac. He succeeded in preventing Fitzgerald from further damaging the altar, but in the struggle Dunne was overpowered and thrown to the floor. Then, leaving his adversary hors-de-combat, Fitzgerald ran howling but of the building and ran down the street, pursued by the police, who had at last made their appearance, and by a crowd of citizens. The chase led to the river, into which the madman unhesitatingly plunged. Sergeant Johnson and Constable Begley as promptly followed, and a struggle began in the water between the lunatic and the officers, while the crowd on the banks cheered and yelled in their excitement. After a desperate contest, in which Fitzgerald fought like a cat, he was secured and made a prisoner. The magistrate remanded him for a trial on charges of wilful damage to property and disturbing the peace. The cause of the man's sudden attack of dementia is unknown.

Senator Macdonald's Divorce Bill Withdrawn—Senator McInnes Distinguishes Himself.

More About the Esquimalt Graving Dock Contracts—Canadian Barley Praised by Experts.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, Ont., July 1.—The Commons sat this afternoon and evening, but did little work. An attempt was made at four o'clock to adjourn the House, but the motion was defeated by 72 to 50.

Sir John Thompson declined to state whether the Government had been advised to send for Sir Charles Tupper to form a ministry.

Hon. Mr. Foster stated that it was not the intention, at present, to increase the rate of interest of the post office savings bank deposits to four per cent.

It is proposed to take Wednesdays, hereafter, for Government business, leaving Mondays only for private members.

Hon. Mr. Haggart announced that Canada has been invited to take part in the World's Columbia Exhibition.

Lady Macdonald's new title will be Baroness Macdonald. Lord Salisbury today, notified the Governor-General of the conferring of this honor.

The Prince Edward Island tunnel was the subject of discussion in the House, all the evening. Cockburn, of Toronto, who opposed the project, got a tremendous roasting.

The new bank act went into effect to-day. One striking point is the provision rendering sale of stock on margin illegal and indeed penal. The thirty-seventh section provides that all sales and transfer shares, and all agreements in respect thereof, shall be null and void, unless the person making such sale is at the time thereof a registered owner of the shares on the books of the bank.

OTTAWA, July 2.—Senator Macdonald's bill to confer on the Superior Courts of the various provinces power to dispose of cases of divorce was over-borne in the Senate by the weight of public opinion. The impression was that it would be detrimental to the public interests to afford greater facilities for obtaining divorce in Canada. Hon. Mr. Abbott advised that the bill be withdrawn. Senator Macdonald acted upon the suggestion.

Senator T. R. McInnes proposes, to-morrow, to urge the insertion of a clause in the Vancouver Shipbuilding and Dock bill to provide that no Dominion aid be given the enterprise, although a general act exists to allow a Federal subsidy to works of this kind. Mr. McInnes will be strongly opposed by the British Columbia members.

The Tarte committee was engaged to-day mainly in the identification of documents written by the Connollys to O. E. Murphy, the object of which was to show that they desired him to secure McGreevy's influence in reference to contracts for their benefit. Murphy states that he offered Hon. Thomas McGreevy $5,000 if he could get Bennett, the engineer at Esquimalt, displaced.

At the meeting of the Agriculture committee, this morning, Mr. Stokes, of London, President of the Committee of English Brewers, who examined Canadian two-rowed barley, last year, stated that the Canadian samples were the richest in albuminous and nitrogenous constituents of any barley ever tested in England. This statement was received with loud applause.

An influential deputation of brewers interviewed the Government, to-day, to protest against the increased excise duty on malt, and urged that higher duty be placed on whiskey.

The House was engaged with the estimates all day and made good progress.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Dominion Day in Ontario.

TORONTO, July 2.—The rain greatly interfered with the Dominion celebration throughout Ontario. At some points, however, the weather permitted the carrying out the programmes of school childrens' demonstrations, with patriotic addresses, trades processions and sports of all kinds. Business was entirely suspended. The Montreals defeated the Torontos at lacrosse, 4 to 3, and Cornwall defeated Ottawa, 5 to 1.

Brakeman Injured.

WINNIPEG, July 2.—A brakeman named Russell was fatally injured here in the yards, to-night, while coupling cars.

Coming to Victoria.

WINNIPEG, July 2.—R. Houston, night editor of the Toronto Globe for many years, is here on his way to Victoria, where he takes a position on the Times.

The McGreevy Scandal.

OTTAWA, July 2.—In the Privileges and Elections committee, this morning, Mr. Fitzpatrick, counsel, produced five notes of $5,000 each, given, according to earlier evidence, to Robert McGreevy by Larkin, Connolly & Co., for Thomas, for changes obtained on the cross-wall contract. Witness Murphy said, to-day, he asked Thomas McGreevy to help them get the changes, and he did help them all he could. Pat Kelly, of Quebec, produced two additional boxes containing cheques, vouchers and other documents belonging to the firm. Martin Connolly, the bookkeeper, identified a number of cheques in connection with the British Columbia works. O. E. Murphy was then recalled as a witness, and read another batch of letters from communicative Mike Connolly to witness, written from Esquimalt, B.C., and Texas. Asked as to the removal of the objectionable Government engineer, Mr. Bennett, on the Esquimalt graving dock, witness said he offered Thos. McGreevy $5,000 to get him removed. This was by directions of the firm, given him by Nicholas Connolly, at the funeral of the latter's wife. He also talked it over with Larkin and others at a dinner in Buffalo. Bennett was not removed, and, as they could not find a suitable person, after a talk with Mr. Thos. McGreevy, Chief Engineer Perley was sent to British Columbia. The committee adjourned until to-morrow.

NEWS OF THE PROVINCE.

Mate of the Steamer Belle Drowned in the Fraser—Dominion Day Celebration—The Fairhaven Excursion.

(Special to the COLONIST.)

NEW WESTMINSTER, July 2.—Dominion Day here was marked by a series of accidents, one of which was fatal. John Smith, mate of the steamer Belle, slipped over a board while the vessel was tied to the wharf, and was drowned before assistance reached him. Deceased had been a sailor all his life, but couldn't swim a stroke. The body was recovered half an hour afterwards.

In the baseball match, yesterday, Westminster vs. Blaine, the latter was almost shut out, earning only one run and gaining two by errors on the part of Westminster. Westminster put up a great game, and scored 19 in eight innings.

Twelve carloads of Westminster people will help Fairhaven to celebrate the fourth.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

A Couple of Clerks in the Consular Office, in Valparaiso, in Difficulty.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.—Valparaiso, Chili, papers, received by the last mail, gave an account of a serious complication in which Her Britannic Majesty's Consul-General, at Valparaiso, has become involved. According to the statements put out from the British sources, the Governor of the province, attended by two officials, presented himself at the British Consulate and requested that two of the consulate clerks might be allowed to give testimony before the Chief Magistrate, on a matter that had nothing to do with the consulate or its business. Consent being given, the two clerks were hustled into a cab and driven to the public jail, where they were accused of complicity in the escape of the insurgent torpedo boat, and of conveying funds to that vessel, in an envelope bearing the consular seal. One of the consular clerks, thus arrested, was subsequently released, but his companion, at latest advice, was still in confinement, notwithstanding the protest of the Consul-General, backed by the British Minister.

All the troops were sent home last night and to-day.

STATISTICS OF IMMIGRATION.

Germany and Ireland Largest Contributors—Few Italian and Hun Women.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 1.—The immigration into the United States from 1820 to 1890 is the subject of a special report which has been prepared by the chief of the bureau of statistics of the treasury department, and will soon be published. Arrivals of immigrants from 1820 to 1890 have reached 15,641,688. The proportion of arrivals from Europe has increased from 68.89 per cent. of the whole immigration in the time from 1821 to 1830, to 91.67 per cent. in the last decade 1881 to 1890. Germany and Ireland are the countries sending the greatest number of immigrants. The only leading countries from which arrivals have fallen off during the past ten years are France and China. The year of the largest immigration yet reported is that ended June 30th, 1891, when the arrivals numbered 788,992. The immigration from Italy was 15,401 for the fiscal year 1881, and has steadily increased until 1890, when it was 52,000, and the present year, ending June 30th, when the total for ten months reached 51,153, as against 34,310 for the corresponding months of 1890.

Of the arrivals during the ten years from 1881 to 1890 61.1 per cent. were males. The greatest proportion of females come from Ireland, the smallest percentage of females from Italy and Hungary. Classification of the character of immigration during the past decade shows that only 26,257 males were of the professional classes, 514,552 skilled laborers, 1,833,325 of miscellaneous occupations, 732,327 made no statement with regard to occupation and 759,450 were without occupation. Of 2,040,572 females 1,724,454 were without occupation.

Struck by a Cyclone.

BOONE, Ia., July 2.—A cyclone which struck the town of Gray, in Audubon county, last evening, demolished a number of houses, injured crops and did other damage. At Hall Byron, a man was killed. A heavy hail storm also prevailed throughout Audubon county, lasting 20 minutes, and did much damage to crops and window panes, especially in the vicinity of Great Arcadia and West Side.

LOYALLY CELEBRATED.

Dominion Day, and How it was Observed in Victoria and Vancouver.

Delightful Weather, and Well-Contested Sports—Pleasant Picnics and Excursions.

Victoria was a deserted city on Wednesday, the Dominion Day attractions elsewhere claiming the attention of the greater part of the population. At a rough estimate—the only one that could be formed—fully twelve thousand Victorians spent the day away from home, enjoying themselves thoroughly and returning with a feeling of pleasurable weariness that remained with them all day yesterday.

The Islander and Yosemite carried over 1,000 holiday passengers to Vancouver, where an extensive programme of sports was provided, lasting from 9 a.m. until evening. The Victoria and Nanaimo brass bands, and Prof. Haynes' band, which accompanied the excursionists from this city, furnished music for all during the day. The Rithet took between 200 and 300 excursionists to Westminster; the Olympian had about the same number for the Sound, and the trains on the E. & N. were crowded all day.

AT VANCOUVER,

the first attraction was the firemen's tournament at 9 o'clock, which included the usual dry and wet tests and speed races. The baseball match, Nanaimo v. Vancouver, commenced at the same hour. As these events were not participated in by "our boys," Victorians paid little attention to them.

The junior

LACROSSE MATCH,

Victoria's second twelve vs. Vancouver juniors, was stubbornly fought, but the luck was as usual, the home team won in four straights, with about five minutes to spare. Fairall, in goal, played a fine game for the visiting team, being ably assisted by Drysdale and Sprinkling. The weakness was in the defence, three of the best players being absent. The home team played good lacrosse all through.

THE RIFLE MATCH

was also won by the Vancouverites, excellent scores being made, when the unfavorable light is taken into consideration. Westminster's team was short two men, and so the results had to be determined by the individual averages. The totals scored were: Vancouver, 663; Victoria, 576; New Westminster, 403. Averages—Vancouver, 82⅞; Victoria, 72; New Westminster, 67 1-6. Highest individual scores—W. H. Forest, 91; J. D. Stuart, 90; Dr. Bell-Irving, 89.

The ranges were the usual 200, 500 and 600 yards; military rifles, open sights. The entire trouble with the Victoria boys was want of practice, as every condition but that of light, was favorable to high scores.

ON THE WATER.

In the regatta, the Capital City boys gave a better account of themselves. Mr. J. D. Prentice's "Freyja" was the only Victoria boat entered in the yacht race, but as she was barred out—the judges deciding that she was not entitled to class as a yacht—the race was between the Siren and the May, the former winning in splendid style.

McLean of Westminster, Smith of Plumper's Pass, and Hartz of Nanaimo, contested the professional single scull, 1½ miles course. In this, McLean played with his opponents, winning "with hands down."

Then came the four-oared amateur race, lap-streaked boats, which brought out crews from the Capital City, Vancouver, Burrard Inlet and Royal City Rowing Clubs. The Victoria boat was manned by D. Sullivan (stroke), F. A. Jackson (3), George Askew (2) and F. Widdowson (bow). Since their organization the Capital City club have never put a losing crew in a race, and the careful training the four-oared crew has received, kept their luck with them. They pulled a strong and sure race, which was all their own, almost from the start. The Burrard Inlet crew finished a creditable second, no time being taken.

In the single scull (amateur) lapstreak, D. Desbrisay entered as the representative of Victoria, but failed to win honors for his city and his club. He was unused to the course, and not in good condition, and started against the advice and wishes of his friends. The result was that he finished last in a race of four. R. Johnson, of the Vancouver club, carried off the trophy. Desbrisay's trainer does not think he should do any more racing until he has had at least a full season's instruction, with which he promises that "Deb" will be the equal of any amateur in the province.

The Peterboro canoe race was well filled, five starting, and H. C. Macauley and Max Heap, of Victoria, being able to win without working, leaving their opponents a quarter of a mile astern.

The double sculls also came to Victoria, George Askew and D. Sullivan pullingaway from a field of five. The race for ship's boats, and the naval race, did not fill, and the canoe races were somewhat tame in comparison with those that are witnessed annually at the Gorge.

BICYCLE AND FOOT RACING.

Brockton Point grounds were given over during the afternoon to bicycle races and field sports. The Island Wanderers were represented by 25 riders in uniform, whose parade and fancy drill were pronounced by Vancouverites among the best features of the demonstration. The races were five in number, the first being the one-mile ordinary, in which Lawrenceson and Mason started on the scratch, and Simpson and Morgan with 20 yards handicap. Simpson spurted from the start, and wore out before half the course was covered. He kept on the track, however, while Morgan preferred to retire, and finished third. The race was between Lawrenceson and Mason, who gave a fine exhibition of fast riding—for the rough and sandy track on which the races were contested. A cinder path is being constructed on these grounds, and the racing men agree that it can't be finished any too soon. Lawrenceson finished with one one of his famous Australian spurts in 3:42.

The one mile safety race was entered by S. C. Philp, S. W. Kay and H. Shearwood on scratch; H. Watson, 25 yards' handicap; and H. A. Tiedemann, 40 yards. This was everybody's race until the fourth and last lap was entered on; then Tiedemann spurted to the front and stayed there until within one hundred yards of the scratch, where Philp caught up. The excitement became intense, and the two leaders spurred on by the calls of the respective clubs, put every ounce of muscle into their work. They were very evenly matched, however, and the result was a dead heat. As both winners of first place were winded and worn, they decided to pool first and second money, and take two first medals.

Lawrenceson, Mason, Philp, Shearwood, Morgan, Kay, Ufford, and Holmes started in the two mile open race, ladies' nomination. Shearwood, Mason and Philp rode a plucky race, but Lawrenceson won again at his own pace with the greatest ease.

J. Garden, a youngster 13 years of age took the tricycle race, and Lawrenceson the five mile championship, in which the battle was between Shearwood and Mason for second place. The latter won the coveted position by five or six feet. In all of his races, Lawrenson was not forced to bring out his reserve strength. He rode, as he always does, bunched down on his handles, keeping a cool head, and pedalling behind the leaders until the last lap, when out came his wonderful spurt. It is claimed by those who have witnessed the performances of all the champions of America, that few ride in better form than Lawrenson, who will make a hard race for any amateur in Canada.

In the field sports, the one mile amateur race was the great event. Blight, of Victoria, made a splendid showing, and won by fully 75 yards, in 4.45. Harry Moody, of Victoria, also distinguished himself as a sprinter, winning the 100 yards for boys with little or no trouble.

WITH THE CRICKETERS.

Victoria's cricketers, who went to Westminster, were hopelessly buried in snow, being defeated by an overwhelming score and an innings to spare. The causes of the defeat are many—an inferior eleven to the one usually put in the field, a fast ground, very different to the one at Beacon Hill; want of practice; and little discretion in the selection of bowlers; each contributed to the unfortunate result. Ward and Thomas at the bat, and Rev. J. W. Green, who made a brilliant catch of a long fly, secured the only honors won by their eleven.

SPORTS AT HOME.

For the home guard, a scratch baseball game and the Peoria blackbird shoot at the Driving Park were the only attractions provided. Of course, many enjoyed their private picnics, boating excursions, or drives into the country or about the park. The contest at the Driving Park was between the Union and Victoria Gun Clubs, who were represented by about thirty-five members. The best individual score of the day was made by Mr. J. C. Maclure, of the Unions, who succeeded in bringing down 22 out of 25 birds. The competition of the Victoria Club was for the Barnsley cup, while that of the Union was merely a club shoot.

At 4:30 p.m., a friendly match was arranged between ten picked members from each club, which resulted in a Union victory by five points, the scores standing 52 to 47.

PICNICKERS AT OAK BAY.

Calvary, Emanuel and Victoria West Baptist Sunday schools, with many private parties, spent the day at Oak Bay beach, where the attractions were boating, bathing, baseball and field sports, besides croquet and the other ever-present picnic games.

Over 1,500 people were taken to the beach and back by the cars, in addition to the many who drove or walked to the picnic grounds. The spot is admirably chosen for a summer day's rest, and the gentlemen now building in the vicinity are to be congratulated on securing so pleasant a location for their seaside homes.

The results in the field sports are given by request:

Boys' baseball match, Calvary v. Emanuel, Calvary victorious, 17 to 6; Young Men's baseball match, Calvary v. Emanuel, Calvary won by one run; Girls' race, infant class, Clara Bishop; Girls' race, consolation, Gertie Knappet; Boys' race, infant class, Cecil King; Girls' race, 12 years, Mabel Cousins; Boys' race, 12 years, Julian Robinson; Girls' race, 16 years, Mary Catterall; Boys' race, 16 years, 8 hurdles, Frank Kelly; All-comers' dash, 100 yards' dash, G. A. Clarke, 2nd S. W. Bodley; Ladies' egg and spoon race, 50 yards and return, Miss Anderson; Boys' three-legged race, Jones and Kelly; Girls' potato race, Mabel Cousins; Boys' sack race, W. Dodds; Wheelbarrow race, Irene Pickard and Earle Clarke; Obstacle race, Patrick Vye; Search race, James P. Vye; Married ladies' race, Mrs. Smith, 2nd Mrs. Spofford. The tug of war, Married v. Single ladies, was won by the former, and the pull between picked teams of the men of Calvary and Emanuel churches, by the former.

AT PEDDAR BAY.

By making two trips, the steamer Princess Louise was able to carry comfortably all the excursionists who had arranged to take part in the picnic at Peddar Bay, arranged by the Gorge Road, Victoria West and James Bay Methodist Sunday schools. Of these there were over six hundred. There was no difficulty experienced in making a landing, the steamer running close in to a large flat rock, which received the gangplank, and afforded wharfage facilities that no one could grumble at. Peddar Bay is a lovely spot, and never did it appear to better advantage. The day passed, as all such do, all too quickly, with boating and bathing, cricket, football and baseball, lawn tennis and croquet, and foot races and games of all sorts. There were hammocks and swings in abundance too, and well supplied lunch tables that did a thrifty business. The Emerald duet accompanied the excursionists and gave a pleasing concert on the homeward trip, which was brought to an end with three cheers for the captain and the singing of the national anthem.

UNION PICNIC.

The Pandora Street Methodist congregation, with their friends of the First Presbyterian and district Presbyterian churches, went to Langford Plains to have a good time—and had it. The games were many and well contested, the tables heaped high with good things, and everybody sociable and anxious to make everybody else happy. There have been 21 picnics at the plains so far this year, but none more successful or more enjoyable than that of Wednesday.

WITH THE PEOPLE OF SAANICH.

The good people of Saanich always make their city friends happy when the latter visit them; and their hospitality at the annual Saanich picnic, held on the grounds near the Prairie tavern, was as bountiful as ever. They had games, too, many and exciting. The 100-yard dash was a particularly close thing, and was won by Mr. W. C Haywood. During the day a contingent of the Victoria Athletic club surprised the picnickers with a visit, and, having brought their apparatus along, gave a first-class exhibition. The number attending the picnic is placed at not less than one thousand.

WAIFS OF NEW YORK.

Katie Emmett's company, in the old reliable "Waifs of New York," a Bowery melo-drama that has "caught on" well, played to a packed house at The Victoria in the evening. The play possesses no special originality or merit, depending for its success on broad character sketching and mechanical effects. These were not wanting, and the audience were, on the whole, satisfied. The honors of the evening fell to the Irish woman, Amy Ames, and her companion in German comedy.

THE FACTS OF THE CASE.

TO THE EDITOR:—"Citizen's" letter in your issue of Wednesday, repeats the opinions of an individual who has a very deep interest in the C. P. R., and who has advanced them in season and out of season on the streets, so that I am inclined to the belief that he is the author of the letter in question. The first sentence in the second paragraph of "Citizen's" letter states "'Importer' said that the C. P. R. promised to land mails, passengers and freight at Victoria as soon as they had steamers of their own." Such a statement was not made in my former letter. "Citizen" may be, as he claims, well informed, but he has not exercised much intelligence in reading or discussing that letter. I am well aware that the C. P. R. promised to land passengers and mails only at Victoria, but I feel sure, if Victorians will demand that such be done, their freight will also be landed here.

"Citizen" states that the charge for freight on the C. P. R. steamers is the same to Victoria as to Vancouver. I have not seen any mention of freight having been brought to the latter point—perhaps it was too insignificant a quantity to have mentioned—but I do know that the rice mills here were compelled to pay lighterage to Victoria from Vancover. "Citizen" started out to teach, and while he makes several statements as to what the C. P. R. would have done, will do, and so on, as though he were in the confidence of the company, his assertions are at variance with the facts.

The great Atlantic lines do not land freight at Queenstown, for the good reason that there is never any shipped for that point. The analogy between this and the C. P. R. steamers is simply absurd. The Atlantic liners land their freight at Liverpool because that is the distributing point. The C. P. R. steamers take their freight past Victoria, which is the distributing point for this province, to Vancouver, which is not a distributing point—and for the reason that they would kill Victoria if they could, to enhance the value of their land holdings in Vancouver. If "Citizen" had been better informed, he would have known that it was serious dock riots and excessive charges for labor at Quebec that finally compelled the Allan and other lines to refrain from landing freight at that point. But Vancouver's trade, compared to Victoria's, is as Quebec to Montreal, and would it not be absurd, if the geographical position of the two places were reversed, to propose to land Montreal freight at Quebec to be lightered back? One third of the Empress of India's cargo was for Victoria.

With "Citizen's" attempted sarcasm about the proper term to be used in describing "lighters" I will say nothing. When you have no good ground for argument, a little nonsense may help you out. The Batavia and Costa Rica have docked without trouble, the latter drawing more than either of the Empresses when she entered. The Empress of India had 23 feet draught when she called at Victoria, the Japan 23 feet 6 inches. The Japan, on Wednesday night, when lying off the Outer wharf, I am informed by a pilot, was drawing 25 feet 10 inches. Your correspondent, "Citizen," must have obtained his information about her draught at Vancouver, from an unreliable source—or perhaps the water is not so buoyant at Burrard Inlet. At any rate, some charitable theory should be found to excuse the remarkable and conflicting statements about the draught of this precious C.P.R. boat while lying at Vancouver.

"Citizen" sneers at the suggestions in several letters to "route" freight via other transcontinental lines. He insinuates that Victoria's freight is a "pencil and blotting pad" business, and not likely to affect the price of C.P.R. shares. This bravado is amusing. It may not be known to this champion of the C.P.R., although he is boasting of his wonderful knowledge throughout his letter, that Victoria's trade is the greatest item in the C.P.R.'s business on this coast, and that if all, or a large portion of it, were taken from them they would feel very sick and very angry indeed. His sneers at Mr. Sorby only point more clearly to the authorship of the letter. That gentleman is able to answer for himself, but it may be mentioned for "Citizen's" benefit that architects have in their control the "routing" of very large consignments of freight.

Trusting that "Citizen" will obtain more accurate information from his dear friends, the C.P.R. Co., before he again rushes into print, and apologizing for the length of this letter, I remain,

IMPORTER.

SEASIDE EXCURSIONS.

TO THE EDITOR:—During the summer season, would it not pay some of the steamboat companys to run, even occasional week day—not Sunday—excursions, at reasonable rates, about the coast? Surely, with all the passing tourists, and Victoria residents, such a modest venture ought to be worth trying. In the old country, one of the principal attractions at seacoast towns, is the well organized system of marine trips. Thus, for instance, from the Isle of Man to Liverpool, some 60 miles, there are two trips daily, and return fare 60 cents! And, without doubt, excursions at proportionate, not exorbitant rates, ought likewise to pay at Victoria, the chief watering place of the Pacific coast.

AN OLD EXCURTIONIST.

A Frenchman's B. C. Experiences.

Dominique Marell is an Old Country Frenchman, who came to British Columbia as an emigrant eleven years ago. He recently started for a visit to France. While in Montreal he was seen by a Witness reporter, who thus speaks of him:—"He has made a 'little pile,' and now is going home to astonish the natives. He worked as a laborer and saved a little money. He worked as a farmer and saved a little more. Then he blossomed into a merchant, and did well. He started on June 19 from Vancouver, and arrived here this morning. He says there is ample room for farmers in the Province, but no room for laborers. Good wages for carpenters. Every prospect for a steady man. The climate is beautiful. The soil is fertile. There is a good future for British Columbia. Mining is opening up well. A man determined to work hard can get along."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed a night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP," and take no other kind.

IMPUDENTLY FALSE.

The Times of yesterday, said: "Even the Colonist is pleased that one of the nominees of the Government has too much self-respect to retain a position in which he would be expected to stifle his own convictions, and that organ practically endorses Mr. Heisterman and condemns the Government."

This is the most impudent falsehood that we ever remember to have seen in a newspaper. The COLONIST was not pleased that a Government nominee did not retain his position; it did not, practically, or otherwise, endorse Mr. Heisterman; and it did not condemn the Government. We did not know why Mr. Heisterman resigned his position as Trustee, and we did not take the trouble to enquire. We presumed that that gentleman knew his own mind and understood his own business. We never believed that a gentleman who accepted the office of school trustee from the Government forfeited, in any way, his self-respect, or would be expected to stifle his own convictions. We have seen men who are quite as intelligent and quite as independent as Mr. Heisterman acting in an exactly similar position, who felt themselves as free to do and to say what their own judgment dictated as the Leader of the Government or the Mayor of Victoria. The Times in this matter betrays the grossest ignorance, as well as the most narrow-minded factiousness.

There is nothing to hinder the Trustees appointed by the Government and the Corporation acting as independently of either the Government or the Corporation as if they were elected, and, we will add, that men who are fit to perform the duties of the office would not for a moment listen to dictation from any man, no matter what his position. We are sure that neither the Government nor the Corporation would, for a moment, think of interfering with the Trustees they had appointed in the performance of their duties. There has been no interference in other places where the Boards of Trustees are similarly constituted, and there is not the slightest reason to believe there would be interference here. But there is no arguing with dense ignorance and unreasoning factiousness.

TOO LONG DEFERRED.

We see by our Seattle exchanges that matters are in a very bad state at the Franklin coal mine. The striking miners and the Company's employes have been allowed to go on, from bad to worse, until blood has been shed and lives lost. Would it not have been better to have sent the militia to the mines at an early stage of the disturbance? An outbreak has been long imminent. The men working in the mines had been supplied with arms for their own defence, and arms were in the hands of the strikers. We see the result of this, and the probability is that worse will follow. If a company of soldiers were sent a month or so ago, to protect the mines, there would have been no outbreak of violence, and in all probability matters would have settled down long before this. A few demagogues might have declared that the presence of troops was an insult to the law-abiding men of Franklin, and they might have tried to make political capital against the authorities for having taken a wise precautionary measure. But the country would have been undisturbed, agitation would have subsided, life would have been saved and the law respected. All this would have been done as it was done at Wellington, without a shot being fired or any breach of the peace being committed. The policy of locking the door after the horse has been stolen is, from every point of view, a bad one. When the people see that the Government is determined to enforce law and to preserve the peace, the men who counsel violence soon find that their occupation is gone. Those who are peaceably disposed are strengthened and encouraged, and the whole community is in a better position to listen to the voice of reason. It was a great mistake in the Washington authorities to allow matters to go so far as they did before they showed their determination to put down lawlessness.

THE SEAL COMMISSIONERS.

We notice that Sir George Baden-Powell and Dr. Dawson are still spoken of as arbitrators in the Behring Sea dispute. They are not arbitrators. They are simply commissioners to collect evidence to lay before the arbitrators. It is greatly to be regretted that these commissioners were not appointed earlier in the year. If they had gone quietly to Behring's Sea and the Pribiloff Islands in May, when the seals were on their way to the breeding grounds, and remained there during the whole of the early part of the season, they would be able to form some idea of the number of seals which migrate to that sea and frequent those Islands. But when they arrive in Behring Sea the season will be so far advanced that they will see very little, indeed, of the seals. They may find traces of slaughter on the Pribiloff Islands, but the seals will by that time be scattered all over the Sea, and they will see very little more of them than if they had paid their visit to their haunts in mid-winter. Old sealers here in Victoria will be able to tell the Commissioners exactly what they will see and what they will not see when they enter the sea at the end of this month or the beginning of next. It will be quite impossible for inexperienced men to tell whether the seals hunting for food over an immense expanse of ocean are more or less numerous than they have been hitherto. And it is not to be expected that the North American Company will either say much or do much to aid them in collecting accurate information. It is to their interest to lead the Commissioners to believe that the fur seals in Behring's Sea are well nigh exterminated, and its employes and those who are working in their interest can be depended upon to deepen that impression. We may be wrong, but we are very much afraid that the information which it is possible for the Commissioners to obtain relative to seal life in Behring's Sea, at the end of the sealing season, will hardly be such as they themselves will regard as valuable, and will not help the arbitrators very much in arriving at sound and accurate conclusions.

THE PROPER KEY.

We are glad to see that there is in Vancouver one newspaper, which gives evidence of possessing both good sense and good feeling, when the city of Victoria is the subject of its remarks. Commenting upon the very singular interpretation which the Times, a few days ago, put upon a passage in an interview, which a Winnipeg reporter is alleged to have had with the Hon. John Robson, relative to the progress of Victoria, the Telegram says:

"We are pleased to know that the progress of the Mainland does not mean the decay of the provincial capital, but it is not even retarding it. We congratulate the provincial capital on the rapid progress she is making, and we sincerely trust that her progress will long continue. We of the Mainland, and of Vancouver especially, have reason to be satisfied with the rapid progress we are making, and it would be worse than childish should we feel displeased or jealous, because our neighbors are making rapid progress too."

If all Vancouver newspapers and Vancouver citizens expressed themselves in this way, regarding Victoria, the relations between the two cities would be as pleasant and as friendly as could be wished, and they would become, as they ought to be, mutually helpful. There are, we know, shallow and silly people in Vancouver, who imagine that they are doing their city an injustice whenever the name of Victoria is mentioned in their hearing if they do not utter some slighting remark or apply to it some disparaging epithet. The Victorians are not pleased when they hear these repeated, and some of them are tempted to say harsh things of Vancouver, and thus ill-feeling is engendered between the two cities. But such ill-feeling does neither of them any good. Both cities would get on quite as well as they have done hitherto, and even better, if the citizens of the one said nothing but good of the citizens of the other. Even a policy of mutual admiration would be wiser and more conducive to the prosperity of both cities than a policy of mutual detraction, and we are sure it would be a great deal pleasanter to the great majority of their inhabitants. The Telegram has struck the proper note, the one that will produce harmony. Will the other Vancouver papers follow in the same key?

AN ENGLISHMAN'S THEORY.

An intelligent and, perhaps, impressionable Englishman, who recently visited Toronto, was much struck with the number of handsome women and lovely girls that he saw in its streets. He had a theory to account for the great beauty of the Toronto matrons and maidens. It will not be easy for the ordinary reader to guess what that theory was. He believed that the Toronto women are beautiful, and retain their beauty, because they are nearly all total abstainers. He thinks that even a moderate use of alcoholic drinks is detrimental to beauty in women. Having made a study of the subject, he declares that female beauty varies, according to the amount of stimulants consumed, and that a large proportion of beautiful women is scarcely ever observed in cities and towns where there is an habitual consumption, on the part of the fair sex, of intoxicating fluids. "Especially is this the case," he says, "in cities which are the centres of the brewing or distilling industry. There the human form divine is apt to lose a great deal of its charm, and to degenerate into a more or less inexpressive and unattractive object."

As Canadian women are generally total abstainers they ought to be, according to this English observer, as a rule, good looking, at any rate very few, indeed, of them have injured their looks by indulgence in strong drink of any kind, excepting tea.

Whether indulgence in alcoholic stimulants has or has not an injurious influence on Canadian women, we are glad to say we are not able to give an opinion because so few of them drink, but anyone who has observed at all closely must admit that moderate drinking is detrimental to the good looks of some Canadian young men. The young man who begins to drink even what is considered moderately, soon loses the freshness, the brightness and the refinement of youth. The youthfulness of the lad who habitually uses strong drink, soon departs from him. He loses his buoyancy and gets coarser. The process of deterioration is not so gradual as some imagine. Many see the change and deplore it, but have no idea of its cause. Every man of experience, whether he is a drinker or a total abstainer, must allow that habitual use of alcoholic drinks is not only a foe to intellectual energy but a destroyer of physical beauty. The young fellow who desires to keep his brain sound and to retain his youthfulness and his good looks, will not acquire drinking habits. The English visitor may be right in attributing the beauty of the Toronto women to their total abstinence habits, or he may be wrong; but he would certainly be right if he attributed the coarse, or faded, or prematurely aged appearance of many of the young men whom he meets in Canadian and United States cities, to their having contracted the habit of drinking alcoholic stimulants every day. The man who wants to keep a sound mind in a handsome body will give strong drink of all kinds a wide berth.

ABOUT SURPLUSES.

There are many who not unreasonably find fault with the Dominion Government book-keeping. They say that it is illusory, that it gives the government a surplus when it has during the year really expended a great deal more than it has received as revenue. A Government that has gone in debt during the year cannot, they say, fairly claim a surplus, because part of its expenditure is less than its revenue. The year's transactions, they contend, should be taken as a whole, and, if their result has been to increase the public debt, it is fallacious to declare that it has a surplus. For our own part, we have always sympathized with these cautious and scrupulous people. We could never see that there was much sense in boasting of a surplus when the year's expenditure, on the whole, was greater than the year's income.

There was, of course, no deception about the matter, though the declaration of a surplus in such circumstances had upon many the effect of a deception. The public accounts are correctly kept, and the intelligent enquirer can see from them at any moment the actual financial condition of the country. He can see that so much was expended on capital account that was not regarded as ordinary expenditure. The country had something to show for this expenditure, railroads, canals and what not, and that therefore the money spent on them was not charged against the year's revenue. The surplus was the excess of revenue over expenditure, without taking into account what was spent on these permanent works. This explains the apparent mystery of the continuous increase of debt during a succession of years in each of which a surplus had been declared. It has been Mr. Foster's ambition not to puzzle unsophisticated Canadians with this financial parodox any longer. He wants the surplus to be a surplus over and above expenditure of all kinds. This condition of things was very nearly reached last year—1889-90. The revenue that year was nearly $40,000,000, and the expenditure in round numbers was $36,000,000. This gives a surplus of four millions—the actual figures are $3,885,000. Included in the expenditure was the sum of $1,887,200 added to the sinking fund for the redemption of the debt. The capital expenditure for the year—railway subsidies, &c.—was $5,720,000, so the net result of the whole year's transactions was an addition to the public debt of only $3,170, which is, when the national finances are considered, a mere trifle. The revenue, last year, was sufficient to meet the whole of the ordinary expenditure, including the sinking fund, which is money laid away and not spent, and all expended on capital account, except a little over three thousand dollars. This is something to congratulate the country upon. The additions to the public debt have, during the last three years, been getting small by degrees and beautifully less. In 1887-88 $7,216,583 was added to the debt; in 1888-89 $2,998,683, and in 1889-90 the addition dwindled down to $3,170.

HAVE YOU BEEN

OUT TO

OAK HARBOR?

Hurry up or the Tramway will be ahead of you, as by their agreement they must be in operation by July 4th.

We want to call YOUR attention to a few facts in connection with this property. It is almost too much to expect of human nature for Real Estate Agents who have practically no property in this direction, to give an honest opinion as to the desirability of this suburb.

Do you not think it would be well to call on us and go see the property, hear what we have to say, then judge for yourselves?

The principal streets are being graded and gravelled. Mount Baker Avenue is completed. All streets that will ever be needed are laid out 60 and 80 feet wide. If you buy an acre you get six lots 60x120, fronting on good streets.

The surveys for wharves will be under way by the first of the month.

Several fine houses will be in course of erection by the first of the month.

The plans for the hotel have been carefully revised by prominent hotel managers, and the intention of the promoters is to make the Mount Baker Hotel second to none in the Province.

We are selling daily to the best class of people for homes.

The harbor is thoroughly good, deep and sheltered, an hour nearer the Mainland than the present harbor; in fact it is the front entrance to Victoria. Notice the trees on the shore and compare them with those along Dallas Road or in Viewfield. They stand perfectly straight, no severe wind storms have given them the appearance of stretching out their despairing arms to the land; the contrast is surprising.

Lastly, there are only five lots left on the water front.

Remember, we carry out all we promise.

California Fire Volunteers.

Thomas J. Burnes, one of the oldest volunteer firemen of Victoria and an exempt of the California volunteers, left, last evening, for Portland, Oregon, to attend the annual gathering, in that city on July 4th, of the Exempt and Pioneer Firemen of California. "Tom" was a member of the San Francisco department and ran "wid de machine" in the days of '49. The present gathering promises to be one of the biggest reunions the California volunteer firemen have ever had.

A Valuable Mine.

J. E. Boss arrived down from Kootenay Lake, on Wednesday, bringing with him a sack of ore from the "Grizzly Bear" mine, owned by the Stadacona Mining Co., of this city. The ore is very rich in character, carrying grey copper, and will assay about 250 ounces of silver per ton. The Grizzly Bear is a continuation of the famous Silver King lead, which comprises three locations and is held for over $3,000,000 by its owners. It is the intention of the Stadacona Co. to develop their property, so that it will be possible to ship ore to the smelters in the summer of next year.

The Wheel Broke.

The only Dominion Day accident so far reported was occasioned by the breaking of a car wheel on the Oak Bay line, while a party of a hundred or more were being taken to the beach during the afternoon. The wheel to give way was rendered defective by a flaw in the casting, so located that before it broke no one could detect that it was not sound. Although all on board were badly shaken up, no one was hurt but Mrs. Frank Sears. She remained unconscious for some time, but was reported all right again yesterday, no serious injury having been sustained.

Fourth July Celebration at Fairhaven.

The C.P.N. Co's twin-screw steamer, Islander, will make an excursion, on the 4th of July, to Fairhaven, leaving here at seven o'clock, a.m., as per advertisement, to be seen in another column. Parties intending to take the trip will be afforded an opportunity of visiting Whatcom and Schome, as all three cities are connected by electric tramway, and within easy reach of one another. An excellent programme of sports, &c., has been arranged, at Fairhaven, and a special band will be in attendance on the steamer. The fare for the round trip is placed at the nominal price of $2, so as to give everyone a chance of an outing on this favorite steamer. *

Honors for a Victorian.

Sergt. W. J. H. Holmes, son of Colonel Holmes, commandant of "C" Battery, has graduated with honors at the Royal Military College, Kingston. He ranks first in military engineering and first in civil engineering. He obtained special mention in practical geometry and engineering drawing, special mention in civil and military surveying and reconnaisance, and special mention in discipline and conduct. This is all the more creditable as Mr. Holmes was but 16 years of age when he entered Kingston, and the youngest in a class of twenty-four. Not intending to engage in military service, but in the profession of civil engineering, he has not devoted his attention as he otherwise would to the military subjects, or he might have obtained a higher place. As it is, he is first in the subjects of most importance to him. Mr. Holmes was a pupil of Rev. Mr. Jenns before entering the Military College. He has proved himself a painstaking student, and has reflected credit on himself and his preceptors.

To Represent B. C.

In the last Gazette, the appointment of Mr. H. C Beeton, agent-general for British Columbia as a governor to represent the Province on the governing body of the Imperial institute, is announced.

4th of July Rates.

As usual, the Union Pacific will sell tickets from all stations to neighboring cities at one fare for the round trip. Call on or write to me for particulars.

je20-w&s Agent Union Pacific System.

To Encourage the Boys.

Mr. T. J. Burns and a few other lovers of baseball are arranging for the purchase of a $250 trophy to be offered for competition among three local clubs, and to be won three years before becoming the property of either. With such a prize to work for the baseballists should wake up.

Will Open Monday.

Although it was intended to open the House for the Aged Poor, on Dominion Day, preparations had not far enough advanced to enable this to be done. The city relief committee are hurrying forward the furnishing of the institution, and it will be ready for use by Monday next.

Routine Business.

The annual meeting of the Shuswap and Okanagon railway company, which is to be held here, on Monday, is likely to be a short and uninteresting one. The election of directors and officers is about the only business on the slate. Capt. Larken will not be present, the McGreevy investigation detaining him at Ottawa.

In Favor of the Olympian.

The C.P.N. Co. have withdrawn the Islander from the Fairhaven excursion run, which she was advertised to make to-morrow. The Islander retires in favor of the Olympian, which will no doubt accommodate all Victorians, who wish to spend Independence Day over the Sound.

The Annual Meeting.

At three o'clock, this afternoon, the annual meeting of the British Columbia Board of Trade will be held in the Board rooms, Bank of B. C. building. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected, the annual report considered, and about twenty new members received. It is essential that every member should attend promptly.

Gone, But Not Forgotten.

Emma Guichon, the fair, but erring young French girl, who was arrested about a week ago, on a charge of till tapping, has changed her place of residence, Seattle now owning her as a citizen. She was to have appeared in the police court on Tuesday last, being allowed out on $100 bail, but when the case was called was far, far away. The bail will be escheated.

Gored by a Bull.

Edward Anderson, a farm hand employed by a Mr. Higgins, near Saanich, was terribly gored by a vicious bull, yesterday morning. His left arm was broken and he was terribly mutilated about the body. He was brought to the city and taken to the Jubilee hospital. Dr. Richardson pronounces his injuries severe, but does not consider them serious.

Teachers' Examinations.

Superintendent Pope and Rev. Donald Fraser took charge of the examinations for teachers' certificates, which commenced at the High School yesterday. English History and Geography were the subjects disposed of the first day, and to-day the papers in Arithmetic and Grammar will be set. The students are well satisfied with the papers so far.

The Caledonian Society's Picnic.

The annual gathering of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society, which in former years has proved so successful, is expected this year to surpass all previous occasions. The committee have made every preparation for the comfort and enjoyment of the large crowd expected to be present, and the grounds near Beacon Hill have been placed in apple-pie order. All may be sure of a pleasant time.

The Fairhaven Excursion

On July 4th, by the popular steamer Olympian, which leaves Turner, Beeton & Co.'s wharf at 8 a.m., and, returning, leaves Fairhaven at 7:30 p.m., promises to be the finest event of the season. The lacrosse and ball teams will accompany the boat and a full band has been engaged. The fare for the round trip will be only $2.50. Persons intending to go should procure their tickets, to-day, at Union Pacific office, 100 Government street, and avoid crowd at the wharf.

Tobacco	2,911 80

Sailed at Last.

The sealing schooner Otto, long delayed by the difficulty of keeping the Indian crew together, sailed last evening. The departure was finally caused by whiskey, distributed by a white peddlar, whom the police are after. It produced a lively row on beard, and the disbanding of the crew. Seeing nothing better to be done, Captain Riley decided to go to the West Coast for a new crew, and then proceed north. The newspaper men are still all O.K.

Furniture Company Organized.

It is understood Messrs. J. Sehl and Hastie & Erskine, furniture manufacturers and dealers, have combined their business, and will hereafter be known as the Sehl-Hastie-Erskine Furniture Co., Limited, of Victoria. The present stores on Government street will be retained for the present or until the necessary additions and alterations have been made to the Sehl building, when the company's business will be concentrated in those premises. With the experience of Mr. Sehl and the well-known energy and push of Messrs. Hastie & Erskine combined, the new company should transact a prosperous and increasing trade.

Chinese Leper at Nanaimo.

There is a Chinese leper at Nanaimo, and the authorities of that city would like to send him to join the lepers on Darcy Island. Deputy Attorney-General Barton was telegraphed to on the subject, and referred the matter to Chairman Holland, of the Sanitary committee. The latter declined to receive the leper at Darcy Island, as the lazaretto is at present supported by the city of Victoria, and the Sanitary committee did not care to saddle the expense for the maintenance of outside lepers upon the taxpayers of this city. Alderman Holland expects that the Dominion Government will assume charge of the lepers, but as yet the Government has taken no action in the matter.

Ready for the Flagship.

Everyone at Esquimalt yesterday was on the lookout for the Warspite, which is due now at any hour. The dock is all ready for her reception, and she is expected to go in as soon as she enters the harbor.

The Ship Thermopylæ.

Collector of Customs Milne has been making an inquiry into the management of the ship Thermopylæ, the property of the Mount Royal Milling Company, the result being that both captain and mate have been superseded, the former by a well skilled seaman from the East.

Customs Revenue.

The Customs revenue for Victoria of the fiscal year ending 30th June is within $12,000 of a million dollars, being the largest in the history of the province. The revenue from Chinese fees was more than $11,000. The gross imports amounted to over three and a half millions.

The Lillooet Bonanza.

Letters, received the other day, from the Bonanza mine on Siwash Creek, Lillooet, contain most cheering reports of the opening up of that property. The tunnel is now being run in on a fine body of rich ore, and there is every indication that the property will prove what it is named—a bonanza.

Competitive Plans.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the general committee, re. the new Christ Church Cathedral, last evening, when it was decided to instruct the building committee to invite competitive plans at once. The funds in hand now amount to about $40,000, and it is thought building can be undertaken early in the spring.

Married Last Evening.

No. 20 Belcher street, the home of Mrs. Davis, was the scene of a wedding, last evening, the principals of which were Mr. R. Bittancourt and Miss E. Billett. Rev. Dr. Reid, of the Reformed Episcopal church, performed the ceremony, in the presence of a select number of invited guests, promptly at 8 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Bittancourt will reside on Third street, Work Estate.

Under the Tram Car.

An elderly man, named Francis Lakin, was thrown from a cart on James Bay bridge, yesterday, owing to his horse becoming alarmed at the approach of a car. Mr. Lakin's leg was caught by the wheel of the train, which bruised it badly. The other leg was broken near the hip. Dr. Milne is attending the patient, whose injuries are, as will readily be believed, quite serious.

In Aid of St. Saviour's.

The first strawberry festival for July was given in the Victoria West hall, last night, by the members of St. Saviour's church, to which the proceeds will go. The delicacies material were "passed round," with cakes and temperance drinks, and the musical programme included solos, duets, and instrumental music by first class local talent. Rev. Mr. Barber is doing all in his power to advance the interests of his church, which is now thriving in every way, and gaining in membership every month.

No Meeting.

There was to have been a meeting of the Senate of the University of B.C., yesterday, but no quorum appeared, and consequently no meeting could be held. As sections 12 and 17 of the University Act of 1891 states, distinctly, that a meeting of the Senate must be held within one month after the election of Senators by convocation, it is contended that the powers granted, under the act, have lapsed, and nothing further can be done in the direction of securing a university until a new bill is passed by the House.

Bell-Elliot.

At Holy Trinity church, New Westminster, on Tuesday, Mr. Alexander Bell, in the office of Messrs. Bell-Irving & Paterson, to Miss Frances Elliot, daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Elliot, of Brampton, Ontario. The interesting ceremony was conducted by the Rev. H. Irvin, and Mr. Louis P. Eckstein, in the absence of the bride's father, gave away the bride. The bridesmaid was Miss Redmond, of Victoria, and Mr. A. B. Mackenzie officiated as best man. The happy couple will spend the honeymoon in San Francisco.

Too Much of a Fairy Tale.

Robert Miller was before the city police magistrate, yesterday, charged with giving a false alarm of fire. He had been celebrating Dominion Day, and, "just for the fun of the thing," poked his head in the door of one of the engine houses and yelled "fire." When Magistrate Johnson asked him what he meant, he explained that he was telling a story to his friend about a fire, and this friend being deaf, had to speak pretty loud. That was all. His honor remarked that was enough; he thought the plea was a little too much of a wolf story. It cost the narrator just $5 and costs.

Fourth of July Excursions.

The steamer Olympian will take out a large excursion party to Fairhaven, on Saturday morning. The Corporation party intend to do the honors of the occasion at Seattle, whither they will proceed by steamboat on the morning of the festivity, while the George E. Starr takes out to Port Angeles a number of those who intend to have a good time with the people of that rising young city.

The annual exhibition of the Cowichan Agricultural society takes place at Duncan's, on Saturday, while every place of any pretensions south of the line contemplates doing due honor to the American national holiday.

The New Gorge Road Church.

Architect Thomas Hooper laid three rough sketches before the trustees of the Gorge Road Methodist Church, last evening, from which they selected one which will be completed without delay, and upon which the new church will probably be erected. It provides for an octagonal brick building in the modern Romanesque, with square tower, and presenting a good face to the two streets. Its interior will be arranged on the amphitheatre plan, to accomodate a congreagtion of 750 or 800. The new church will cost about $15,000, and on its completion the building now in use will be specially refitted for use in future as a Sunday school and lecture room.

AN EXTENSIVE SALE.

The Moodyville Saw-mill and Lands Sold to English Capitalists.

The Moodyville saw-mill property has been sold to English capitalists by Mr. J. Wulffsohn, of Vancouver. On Tuesday last the purchase money was paid over to Capt. Power, of Moodyville, who sold to Mr. Wulffsohn, and the new owners, the Moodyville Land and Saw Mill Company took formal possession of the property on Wednesday. The transaction amounts in value, says the News-Advertiser, to about one million dollars, and is probably the most important which has occurred in the commercial history of Vancouver. The board of directors is a very influential one, comprising the following noblemen and gentlemen: The Earl of Chesterfield, the Earl of Durham, Mr. Arthur Heywood Lonsdale, Colonel, the Hon. Oliver Montague and Mr. Edmund Evan-Thomas. Messrs. Wulffsohn & Bewicke (Limited), will be the general agents in British Columbia, and Mr. Johann Wulffsohn of that firm the General Manager of the Company.

The property acquired by the new company is a very extensive and valuable one, including large and valuable tracts of land besides that embraced in the mill property itself. On the north shore of the inlet, surrounding the mill, there are 1,786 acres, with a valuable water frontage of three miles. Other valuable agricultural lands are situated at Mud Bay, Strainer Island, in the Coast District and elsewhere, aggregating 9,384 acres. There are also no less than 31,448 acres of valuable timber limits included in the purchase. The local management of the mill and the general conduct of the business will be the same as at present, the results of the operation of the business having given results that show this policy to be in accord with the interests of the concern.

WHEELING.
THE ST. ANDREW'S CYCLE COMPANY have just received some fine machines from England, consisting of Cushion and Pneumatic Tyres; a great novelty is a lady's tricycle with pneumatic tyres and pneumatic handle with hand brake, which is so beautifully constructed that the machine can be turned in any direction while the brake is applied; it is on view at their new store, 27 government Street. The St. Andrew Cycle Co. will shortly be manufacturing machines in Victoria, and have resolved to reduce the price of all their machines to a scale as low as if they were already manufactured here, and have devised a scheme through which a machine may be had at the small payment of $10 per month.

Horrible Stories of Slaughter and Bloodshed from Sierra Leone —Thousands Butchered.

Destitution Among the Poorer Classes in Berlin—Floods in Rhenish Prussia.

HORRIBLE TALES OF CRUELTY.

LONDON, June 30.—A letter just received from Sierra Leone says that the vigorous suppression of the slave trade along the coast, and the consequent inability of the warlike races to dispose of their captives at a profit, has caused a revival, in the most terrible form, of the scenes of slaughter and bloodshed which formerly made every chief town of the interior a Golgotha. Colassit, it is said, has again witnessed the killing of as many as two hundred victims in one day, and the death drum is heard in the streets more frequently than before the British Ashantee expedition, when it was hoped such scenes were put to an end for ever. The savage Wangarus recently made a raid on Dagomba, completely devastating the villages and carrying off over 2,000 captives. They were unable to get rid of the prisoners as slaves, and held a sacrificial feast which lasted for three days, in which every captive perished, not even the children being spared. It is universally admitted in the settlements that the approaching extinction of the slave trade in Western Africa is making the warfare more merciless than ever.

MISERY IN BERLIN.

According to a Berlin despatch, several cases of death from absolute want among the poorer classes have been covered up by the authorities as being entirely attributable to disease. There is a systematic effort on the part of the authorities to minimize the misery that prevails, owing to the high price of bread. The police have been known to rebuke persons on the street who were heard talking about the corn duties in a tone of dissatisfaction, and they give a flat denial, on every possible occasion, to the reports of destitution. In this way they have managed to deceive some of the newspapers, while others are willing to misrepresent matters without being deceived. The truth, says the United Press correspondent, is that nearly every wage earning family keenly feels the situation, and the Kaiser is losing on account of it much of the popularity which he earned by his advocacy of labor reform. The Socialists are taking advantage of the general discontent to sow their doctrines broadcast, and expect to reap the harvest at the next election for the Reichstag. Military, as well as police, are kept vigilant for signs of riot.

AN UNENVIABLE REPUTATION.

Prince Adolph, of Schaumberg Lippe has been winning an unenviable standing among his fellow officers of the German army since his marriage to the Kaiser's sister. The young Prince has assumed such an air of arrogance and superiority that the other officers of the company have united in a general plan to ignore him socially as in every way respect for his military rank will permit.

AN EPIDEMIC OF SMALL POX.

Small pox is raging in Witten, a flourishing manufacturing town of Westphalia, and also in Herne and Hœrdt. Fears are entertained that if the disease takes hold among the miners it may spread like wild fire. The plague is said to have been brought to Witten by a family of Russian Jews, who were themselves free from the disease, but who had lived in a Russian village where there were a number of cases. This and other circumstances have determined the officials of Witten to close their doors to Russian Jews.

FLOODS IN RHENISH PRUSSIA.

The Saar river in Alsace-Lorraine and Rhenish Prussia has overflowed its banks and almost destroyed one of the finest wine crops that region has seen for years. The visitation is a great shock to the people of the valley, who are stripped of everything.

THE TIN PLATE INDUSTRY.

The St. James Gazette takes a gloomy view of the future of the tin plate industry in England. The Gazette says that the tin plate lockout is the beginning of the decline of a great British industry, and that the skilled working men will seek and find remunerative employment in America.

DEEPENING THE SEVERNE.

Extensive operations have been begun to deepen the river Severne, and establish traffic with the Midlands, making an outlet for that traffic to Bristol.

INTERESTING DISCOVERY.

That London was a Roman city of importance, is again shown by an interesting discovery of Roman walls and inscribed pavement in the subsoil.

BATTLE WITH BOBBIES.

LONDON, July 1.—A hundred soldiers in Folkestone, yesterday, had trouble with the police, which at one time threatened to be serious, and which set the whole town in an uproar. A woman had been arrested whom the soldiers felt themselves bound to defend, and they attempted to rescue her. A fight followed in which the soldiers used their belts and the police their batons. The soldiers were at first victorious and cleared the streets, the police being too few in number to resist them successfully, being assailed from the windows, and they threatened to wreck the town hall.

The soldiers started on their way thither, when the police, re-inforced by mounted men, armed with cutlasses, came up with and attacked them. This time the soldiers who were unarmed got the worst of it. They were compelled to give up the woman, whom they had taken out of the hands of the police, and 40 of them were arrested and taken to jail amid the howling and jeering of the mob, which had collected in large numbers to assist the police.

Fortunately, neither side was in possession of fire arms, or the loss of life would have been deplorable. As it is many heads were broken, and two of the soldiers who were arrested received sabre cuts, which may prove serious. There is much excitement in the barracks over the arrest and hard treatment of the soldiers, and there are fears of a renewal of the disturbances. Both the military and local authorities are taking precautions to prevent any lawless outbreak. The conduct of the troops will be investigated, and it is possible they may be sent abroad as a punishment and a cure for their insubordination.

A CLERGYMAN'S DISGRACE.

A striking fall from grace has been that of Arthur Johnson, just sentenced to a year's imprisonment at hard labor. It was only last year that Johnson, a man of remarkably handsome person and appearance and noted for his evangelistic labor, founded the Trister branch of the church army, an organization which it was proposed to build within the established church as a substitute for the Salvation Army. He was patronized by bishops, and no one was more conspicuous in good works than Johnson. Last February, the brilliant and handsome evangelist eloped to Australia with the pretty wife of his landlord. After remaining there some time he returned to England and gave himself up.

MURDERED AND ROBBED.

A hermit named Brunel, who for 50 years lived in the tower of the Church of Our Lady of Grace at St. Etienne, has been murdered by some unknown person and robbed of the savings of his lifetime, which he accumulated from alms received from visitors.

A MONUMENT TO SIR JOHN.

At the suggestion of Lord Rosebery, the Imperial Federation League has started a fund for the erection of a statue to Sir John Macdonald in St. Paul's cathedral.

DOWN ON MACHINES.

The members of the labor committee exhibited much amusement, Wednesday, over the evidence of a coal porter, who appeared before them as a witness in regard to the condition of things in his occupation. He delivered a vigorous tirade against the use of labor-saving machinery and appliances, and favored taxing them out of existence, on the ground that they were responsible for most of the misery of the masses.

GALLANT MRS. GRIMWOOD.

The Manipur Heroine Is to Get the Victoria Cross.

LONDON, July 1.—Mrs. F. St. Clair Grimwood, the widow of Victor Grimwood, the British resident of Manipur, who lost his life during the recent massacre at that place, to-day, visited and had lunch with the Queen by royal command. As a reward for heroism under terribly trying circumstances, Mrs. Grimwood was pensioned and decorated with the red cross. It is rumored the young widow is to receive the Victoria cross. Should this prove true, she will have been the first woman upon whom this honor, heretofore reserved for soldiers, sailors and marines, has been conferred.

THE FOURTH IN LONDON.

Minister Lincoln will Observe it in Grand Style.

LONDON, July 1.—Mr. Lincoln, the American minister, is making preparations for the celebration of the Fourth of July in a fitting manner at his residence on Cromwell road. Six hundred invitations have been issued for the reception. Among the features will be a professional musicale and conversazione. The Duchess of Marlborough, the Duchess of Sutherland, Lady Churchill and Senators Spooner and Vance and Congressman Morse are among the invited guests. This is expected to be one of the most brilliant observances which has been seen in London for years.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

THE TURF.

THE SHEEPSHEAD RACE.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY, July 1.—The great Realization stakes, valued at $40,000 to the winner, was won to-day by Potomac, with Montana second and Strathmeath third. Time, 2:51.

A crowd of fully 20,000 people saw the race run, and betting firms took in an immense amount of money. The famous Potomac was only second choice, at 2 to 1, and started at 110 pounds, with Hamilton up. Montana sold at 8 to 1 straight, and 2 to 1 for place, while Strathmeath was a red-hot favorite at 5 to 4. The race was the fourth on the card, one mile and five furlongs distance, and, besides Potomac, the starters, their weights and riders, were: Montana, 109, Tarral; Strathmeath, 116, Covington; Westchester, 118, Littlefield; Hoodlum, 112, Bergen; Warpath, 112, Tarral.

Post betting was lively but unchanged from the figures above. Many liked Hoodlum for place at 3 to 1. The weather was clear and track fast. At a drop of the flag Potomac got off in the lead, but Hamilton reined him back a bit and at the quarter, despite his weight, Covington had driven Strathmeath to the front, while Hoodlum was second and Westchester third. It continued around the track to the mile. Then Bergen began to ride Hoodlum, and at the end of a mile and a quarter to post had Hoodlum and Strathmeath neck and neck and two lengths ahead of Westchester, who was rapidly giving way.

But Hoodlum was not equal to the effort and fell back beaten a furlong further on, with Strathmeath still in the lead, Warpath second and Potomac third, the others close up.

Now Hamilton began his race on Potomac and the great colt began to move up on Strathmeath, who led him into the stretch by only half a length, with Montana third and Warpath fourth. Never was such a race seen in the stretch. The pace was awful and whips and spurs drove the racers, with the spectators fairly wild with excitement. It looked like a dead heat as Potomac and Montana went under the wire together. Strathmeath was a length behind.

The judges gave the race to Potomac by a neck, with Marcus Daly's colt Mon second, and Strathmeath, the winner of the American Derby, third. Great sums were lost on Strathmeath, but Potomac's win is popular and Hamilton was greeted with rousing cheers as he weighed out.

THE KAISER VISITS HOLLAND.

He is Received Upon Arrival by the Young Queen—A Picturesque Incident.

AMSTERDAM, July 1.—The flotilla escorting the Emperor of Germany and his party arrived here to-day, accompanied by the Dutch squadron. Upon landing at the dock here the Emperor was received by the Queen, who is only 11 years of age, and by the Queen Regent, Princess Waldeck. The Queen and Queen Regent were surrounded by a brilliant gathering of cabinet ministers, army officers and municipal and other authorities. After a most imposing ceremony of reception, the Imperial guests of Holland were escorted to the palace, where they will be entertained during their stay in this city. All the shipping in the harbor and all the main thoroughfares are decorated with flags, and this evening there was a brilliant illumination in honor of the young Emperor of Germany.

The route leading from the landing place to the palace was lined with troops and crowded to the utmost with enthusiastic citizens. After passing an hour at the palace, the Emperor drove through the city, seemingly well pleased. A picturesque incident was a grand military tattoo by an orchestra of nearly 1,000 men, at 9 o'clock this evening, in the Dom square, rendering "Heil Dir im Siegesranz." It was remarkably impressive. The Emperor witnessed all this after the grand banquet at the palace.

THE WARM WAVE.

Several Cases of Sun-stroke in California—The Thermometer 103 in the Shade.

STOCKTON, Cal., July 1.—Two farm hands in this county and two laborers in the city died to-day from sunstroke. George Foster, a farm hand, working near Rockford, was taken sick while driving a header wagon in a field yesterday, but went to work again to-day. At noon to-day he was again stricken in the field and died a few hours later.

Another farm hand who died from sunstroke was John A. Ebersole, a Swiss, who was working near French camp. He was in a grain field till the middle of the afternoon, when he went home and died in the evening.

Lucus Klemfelder, employed in a lumber yard, went home suffering from sunstroke this afternoon and died in the evening. He leaves a wife and children.

The fourth death is that of an unidentified laborer. He fell while walking on Commerce street, in this city, this afternoon, when the thermometer was at the highest notch, marking 103 in the shade. He died an hour later.

MURDERED BY A MANIAC.

A Female Inmate of the Stockton Asylum Choked to Death.

STOCKTON, Cal., July 1.—A horrible crime was committed at the insane asylum here, this morning. One woman patient choked another to death. Two women, Mrs. Ellen Sweeney of Alameda and Miss Julia Potts of Los Angeles, were put in the same cell, last night, owing to the crowded condition of the female ward. Neither was considered dangerous, and neither was strapped, as is the custom with dangerous patients. This morning it was found that Mrs. Sweeney had been choked to death. Miss Potts acknowledged having committed the deed, and seemed to think it fun.

THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE.

Emperor William Says It Means Peace—A Russian Paper Disagrees.

HAMBURG, July 1.—Herr Nissen, of the Hamburg-American Packet Company, in an interview to-day with reference to the visit of Emperor William, said that after the dreibund treaty the emperor addressed him as follows: "I am able to impart to you the joyful news that, yesterday evening, the dreibund was renewed for a further period of six years. Peace is thus again assured for a long time." Herr Nissen added that the announcement was received with the greatest joy on all sides.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 1.—The Novoe Vremya, to-day, in commenting on the renewal of the dreibund, says that unless France and Russia reply to this treaty shortly, by concluding a formal alliance, the central powers of Europe will become too confident as to the impotency of their adversaries to enable the latter to counteract their ambitious desires, and they will consequently bring about events which will render a European war inevitable.

JAPAN'S NEW CABINET.

A General Shake-Up—A Liberal World's Fair Provision.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Yokohama correspondence states there has been a change in the Japanese cabinet resulting, so the native papers say, from the incident at Otsu, where the Czarowitch was attacked. The minister of foreign affairs, Viscount Acki, has been succeeded by Count Enomoto. Count Saige, minister of home affairs, is succeeded by Viscount Shinagawa. Yeshiigaw, minister of education, is succeeded by Viscount Tanaka.

For several days the news has been wrapped in mystery, but the native papers are now publishing the reason. It is said that as a matter of courtesy the Russian prince wired from China asking permission to take his fleet around the island of Kagoserma. No such permission was needed, but the request was made through the Russian miniter at Tokio to avoid giving offense. The Japanese refused permission for any but the prince's own vessel to visit Kagoserma, whereupon the Russian minister informed the authorities that other vessels would accompany the flag ship and for them to stop the fleet at their peril.

The Japanese display at the World's Fair is assured by an appropriation of $500,000 by an imperial ordinance. A special exposition bureau was created, consisting of one chief, two assistant chiefs and several counsellors, five managers, and several secretaries, all men of rank.

Never try to make others believe what you do not believe yourself.

It would be nonsense for me to advertise that I have got the largest stock in B. C., or even the choicest and best selected, or that my facilities for the transaction of business are superior to those of any other grocer.

No such thing, I do NOT claim it.

But I DO CLAIM to have a really GOOD STOCK of STAPLE and FANCY GROCERIES, and that they are not only well selected but well bought, and, furthermore, that I believe my prices, taken all round, are cheaper in the long run than those of any other firm in Victoria.

I also guarantee fair dealing EVERY TIME.
